

IN THE COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS OF TEXAS

NO. PD-0797-17

DAVID ARROYO, Appellant

v.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

ORDER REGARDING REPRESENTATION BEXAR COUNTY

Per curiam.

ORDER

Appellant was convicted of six counts of indecency with a child in cause number 2013CR8109 in the 399th District Court of Bexar County. Appellant was sentenced to confinement for 20 years on each count. The court of appeals reversed in part and affirmed in part the judgement of the trial court. Arroyo v. State, No. 04-15-00595-CR (Tex. App. —San Antonio, delivered July 19, 2017). The State's petition for discretionary review was granted by this Court on October 25, 2017. Appellant is entitled to representation before this Court at this time. See Article

1.051(a)(d)(2), V.A.C.C.P. The current attorney on this case, Andrea Polunsky, has been granted a motion to withdraw. Appellant is without representation in this Court. Accordingly, the trial court is ordered to determine if Appellant is currently represented by counsel, and if so, to inform this court who represents Appellant. If Appellant is not currently represented by counsel and desires counsel, the trial court must first determine whether Appellant is indigent. If the trial court finds Appellant is indigent, that court shall appoint an attorney to represent Appellant before this court in regard to PDR No. PD-0797-17, in accord with the provisions of Articles 1.051 and 26.04, V.A.C.C.P. Any hearing conducted pursuant to this order shall be held within 30 days of the date of this order. The trial court's order appointing counsel, any findings of fact, affidavits, or transcription of the court reporter's notes and any other supplementation of the record shall be returned to this court within 45 days of the date of this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS THE 8th DAY OF MARCH, 2018

DO NOT PUBLISH